

Having directly experienced broadcast interference caused by data transmissions over power lines I cannot believe that BPL would not increase that interference. Nor do I believe that the power companies will be able to effectively control interfering emissions from a system that is not designed to carry RF current. The addition of yet another broadband carrier may increase competition but at a significant cost to other wireless services. To that end, I respectfully request that the Commission not allow BPL operations in this country.